

Your Conduct

This document explains Cahoots Code of Conduct for Adult Participants

A code of conduct tells you HOW to behave on camps and day programs

When you see the word we or us in this document it means Cahoots

	This code tells you about Your rights Your responsibilities How we expect you to behave Who is this code for? It is for you and your family or your decision makers Signing the Code of Conduct means you know what you can do at a camp or day program <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. You will be provided the Code of Conduct (Adult Participants) at your Service Intake Appointment</li><li>2. Your or your family or decision maker will sign your Code of Conduct before you go on a camp or day program</li></ol>
	Cahoots Values support the Code of Conduct Respect Trust Inspire Celebrate Collaborate

Interacting with others

Treat others with courtesy and respect

Contribute positively

Respect others may have different ideas

Share the space and equipment with others

Not dominate an activity so others cannot participate equally

When on a camp or day program, we would like to see you

Participate fully in all activities

Remain on the camp or day program for the entire time

Attend all planned activities

If you wish to leave, we will support you to tell your emergency contact

and

to make travel arrangements to go home

Making friends and relationships

We encourage you to make new friends and to keep old friends,

We will support you to make decisions regarding friendships support you with your feelings if a friendship stops support you to know what sexual harassment and assault is protect you from unwanted physical and sexual advances

To support the privacy of everyone at a camp or day program, you will not share private information about others not take photos or film others sleep in assigned beds and dormitories sleep in your own bed and remain there until morning use bathrooms that are gender neutral or aligned to your gender identity respect the privacy of others and practice modesty when getting dressed not use electronic devices in dormitories when people are sleeping or anywhere privacy is expected by others

Gender identity, expression, and sexuality

You are the final authority on your gender identity, expression, and sexuality

You will treat others with equality, mutual acceptance, understanding and respect

We will support privacy and that no one is “outed”

You are expected to use the name and pronouns others identify by use gender neutral language like “hi friends” or “welcome everyone” be supportive and respectful not make rude or jokes about someone sleep in assigned bed and dormitories use bathrooms and changing facilities that are gender neutral or aligned with your gender not judge a person

Physical contact

If you like someone and they like you, it's ok to hold their hand

give them a consensual hug or kiss on the cheek refer to them as girlfriend or boyfriend

Consensual means you both agree

We want everyone to feel comfortable, so on a camp or day program you cannot have sexual relations cannot sleep in another person's bed or with another person cannot sleep in non-assigned beds or dormitories cannot enter a bathroom that is not aligned to your gender cannot travel in any bus or car sitting next to someone else's girlfriend or boyfriend cannot give "back rubs" or massages cannot have physical play where a person could be held down, hurt or physically abused

Cahoots staff may make physical contact with you, this may be

For giving you first aid

Demonstrating or helping you in an activity

Helping with your personal care

Congratulating you with fist bumps or high fives

Supporting you in non-sexual or emotional support like a brief hug

To get your attention

However, we will ask you first if it is ok

Driving your car

If you have a driver's licence, you can drive to the camp or day program

At the camp or day program, you will be unable to use your car

We will provide all the transport to activities

Bringing phones, headphones, tablets, smart watches

We strongly encourage you to leave these devices at home, unless your family or decision maker allow you to bring them

- If you do bring your device
  - you can keep it but are responsible for it
  - or
  - you can give it to the Facilitator to keep safe
- Unless the device helps you, turn it off and do not use it during
  - activities
  - mealtimes
  - in dormitories when people are sleeping
  - private places

We encourage you to use your devices during "free time".

If you spend too much time on your device we may discuss with you about times you can use your device

we may talk to your family or decision maker on storing the device till the end of the camp or day program

You cannot take photos or video other participants

Bringing money and valuables

We strongly encourage you to leave money, jewellery or computer games at home

If you do bring money or valuables

or

you can give it to your Facilitator to keep safe

We will help you with your money

- We may need to ask your family or decision maker, what you can buy with your money
- If you want to buy something different, then we may tell your family or decision maker to see if that is ok

Medications

At camp or day program, we lock all participant's medicine in a safe place

You can request your medicine from the Facilitator at any time

Alcohol

We will not supply or allow alcohol at camps and day programs

You may decide, or be allowed by your family or decision maker, to have an alcoholic drink at a place where alcohol is served

You must not:

- Drink alcohol to excess
- Buy, sell or give alcohol to others

Smoking

Camps and day programs are non-smoking because smoking is a serious health issue

we aim to reduce active and passive smoking

Drugs, weapons, and crimes

You cannot bring illegal drugs or weapons on a camp or day program

Any crimes that occur will be reported to the police

Cahoots has zero tolerance for

- illegal drug possession
- bullying or threatening behaviour
- the use of knives, firearms, knuckledusters
- pranks that may hurt or harm others
- theft
- deliberate destruction of property
- playing with fire

If you DO NOT follow the Code of Conduct

we may contact your family or decision maker

you may be sent home
